LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. April 12, 1882. Fair to Middle Atlantic States fair weather, with light winds, rising, followed by falling barometer and stationary or higher temperature.

CHRIST CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL EASTER CELEBRATION. The Easter celebration of the Sunday School of Christ (Episcopal) Church was held in that church yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. A large congregation was present, and the exercises were very interesting. The display of flowers on the occasion was very beautiful. At the time appeared for the commencement of the exercises the scholars of the school, Mr. E. J. Leach, superintendent, accompanied by the teachers, marched into the church singing "Marching On." After prayer and singing, the different classes, in response to the call of the rector, presented their floral offerings, which were placed in position to form a large rainbow of flowers, reaching from the front of the altar, beautiful in color, forming, when the display was put in its proper place, a large house, surrounded with a crimson wreath and illuminated with a passion cross, the whole being illuminated by a cluster of gasolines. The scene presented was really magnificent, calling forth the admiration of all present and reflecting great credit upon the taste and good judgment of the committee having the affair in charge. After the reading of the Light House, and the singing of praises, Rev. Mr. Suter, rector of the church, delivered a short address to the children, explanatory of the scene before them, which was calculated to impress upon the minds of the young, the beautiful creations of God cannot fail to point to the great Author whose who look admiringly upon them. The address was followed by more excellent singing, with Prof. H. J. J. at the organ, and then the scholars presented their Easter offerings for foreign and domestic missions, amounting to $152. A report of the school read showed that there were 225 scholars and 15 teachers on the roll. The exercises, which were made up largely of the sweet singing of beautiful hymns by the children, were concluded by benediction by Rector Suter, thus closing one of the most interesting Easter celebrations ever held in this city. Besides the decorations mentioned above, the front of the altar was adorned with a mound of choice flowers, in memory of parent and child who dearly loved the old church.

POLICE NEWS.—There were before the Mayor this morning, Smith Beale, colored, charged with an assault on Frank Johnson, colored, and Robert Edwards, colored, charged by John Nelson, white, with breaking into his shop, on Franklin street, and stealing therefrom three bunches of fish. Beale was fined $5.00 and costs, in default of the payment of which, he was sent to the chain gang for sixty days. Edwards was sent on to the grand jury of the Corporation Court to answer the charge of house-breaking.

Mary Cumpson was present and asked that her boy be sent to the Alms House, which request was taken under consideration by the Mayor.

Laura Cumpson, another of the family, was granted a permit to enter the Alms House Monday last.

An old colored woman reported that there was a case of small pox next to her house on Gibson street, between Alfred and Patrick. The matter was referred to the Health Officer for investigation, and an examining board failed to discover any small pox in the neighborhood mentioned.

THE ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT.—The entertainment last night by the lady friends, and under the auspices of, the Old Dominion Boat Club was attended by a large, appreciative audience. The programme was rendered in style that elicited continued applause, and all the ladies and gentlemen taking the various characters performed so well their parts that the praise they so richly deserved was freely given. The pleasures of the evening were commenced with a drill by the "Fan Brigade," twelve pretty young ladies attired in costumes that would have probably caused the original Oscar as much pleasure as they evidently did his imitator, who was pined with filices by the whole brigade. Then followed "The Coming Woman," a prophetic comedy detailing what woman's suffrage was leading to. "He's a Lunatic," was the concluding piece. Those who anticipated a pleasant time were not disappointed, for all present expressed themselves well pleased with the entertainment, which was not concluded till eleven o'clock.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.—The tables at the fair for the benefit of the Independent Order of Mechanics, in progress at McBurney's Hall, present a very neat appearance. They are in charge of the following ladies, each with full corps of assistants: Mrs. Sarah M. Graham, Mrs. Mittie Abbott, Mrs. Wm. Humphries, Miss Emma Cook and Miss Annie Roles. Among those present last night was Mr. L. M. Patterson, Supreme Ruler of the Order. The following is the vote for the several articles named:

For Watch—Mrs. Baur, 15.

For Cane—Friesous, 15; Kahout, 10; W. Mahler, 5.

For Necktie—Miss Messina Keyes, 8.

For Badge—Mansfield 8; W. D. Chickler, 10.

MARRIAGE.—Last night Miss Mary E. Root, one of "the fairest of the fair" of Alexandria's belles, was married to Mr. Charles A. Reed, of Atlanta, Ga. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's brother, S. G. Root, Esq. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony on a northern tour, and will then return to Atlanta.

Fish Report.—The high wind of yesterday and last night had the effect of keeping the fish down the river and this morning only two small lots of shad and herring arrived at Fish-town, selling as follows: Shad $14.75 per hundred; herring $9.00 per thousand. No bunch fish have arrived at the wharf for several days past.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

About sixty mechanics, with a supply of implements, reached Danville yesterday from Richmond to commence the building of an iron bridge over the Dan river for the Richmond and Danville Railroad.

The Norfolk Virginian is alarmed at the prospect of injury to that city by the proposed consolidation of the Western Maryland R. R. with the Shenandoah Valley R. R., and the latter's consolidation with the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

Mary Booth, (colored), aged fourteen years, arrested for the murder of Mrs. R. C. Gray and Travis Jones, in Surrey county, by poisoning them with arsenic in coffee, has confessed her guilt, implicating Martha Jones and others. The feeling is so strong that threats have been made of lynching her.

A special train bearing the New Hampshire Club arrived in Richmond yesterday. The visitors, including ladies, number about ninety, and among them are Governor Bell, of New Hampshire; G. B. Chandler, president of the club, and other distinguished citizens of that State. The club met upon its arrival by Mayor Carrington and several members of the council and mercantile associations, by whom they were welcomed to Richmond. The Legislature sent a joint committee to tender the visitors the privilege of the floor of each chamber. Governor Cameron will call upon them and they will spend the greater part of to-day in sight-seeing, and in the afternoon the annual banquet of the club will take place.
